

HURRICANE ISABEL

SEPTEMBER 2003

. . . Hurricane Watch Net

The Hurricane Watch Net (HWN) at 14.325 MHz will activate on Wednesday, 17 September 2003, at 1400 UTC (10 AM EDT).

< <http://www.hwn.org> >

. . . National Hurricane Center WX4NHC

WX4NHC will commence operations on 17 September 2003 at 2200 UTC (6 PM EDT), according to Amateur Radio Coordinator John McHugh, KU4GY.

< <http://www.wx4nhc.org> >

. . . SATERN

The Salvation Army Team Emergency Radio Network (SATERN) plans to activate on 14.265 MHz on 18 September 2003 at 1400 UTC (10 AM EDT) to handle emergency and health-and-welfare traffic.

< <http://www.satern.org> >

. . . North Carolina ARES

The North Carolina Section's HF Amateur Radio Emergency Service (ARES) net, the "Tarheel Net," meets on 3923 kHz nightly at 7:30 PM Eastern Time and on 7232 kHz during daylight hours, if needed.

. . . Western Pennsylvania V/UHF

Those with uhf/vhf capabilities be sure to monitor your county or district skywarn/district net frequencies for information.

. . . Western Pennsylvania HF

Stations with HF capabilities monitor 3.983/7.272 for information from the WPa section